WAIMANALO COMPANY RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the Walmanalo Sugar Company was held yesterday, resulting in the reelection of the day, resulting in the reelection of the officers, as follows: J. D. Spreekels, president; Richard Ivers, wice-president; H. M. Whitney, treasurer; E. E. Spaiding, secretary; E. F. Bishop, director; H. Ginss, auditor.

It is estimated that the output of this property during 1915 will be 4500 tons, as against 5547 last year, the largest in its history.

The company has fifty acres more under cultivation this year. Manager George Chalmers in his report states that the reason for a falling off in the crop is that some of the came is on poor land and that the rainfall has been light.
